TUCSON BIRD COUNT

Route Data Form (04/14/2015)

Report up to 4 sites per page; use additional pages as necessary. See Route Instructions for details of all fields.

Ë	Route Number
D	Primary Observer (conducts point counts)
22	Others Present

Complete all fields for all sites

SITE	Site ID # (e.g., 101_06)
	Date
	Site start time
	Site status (check one)	same as last year site new or moved	☐ same as last year ☐ site new or moved	☐ same as last year ☐ site new or moved	same as last year site new or moved
	Site Location Describe location and access if site is new or moved, or if existing description can be improved. Otherwise write "same".
	Noise level (circle one)	none moderate extreme	none moderate extreme	none moderate extreme	none moderate extreme

Use this section to

• detail observations of unusual birds (include all distinguishing characters used to make ID)

• provide more details of location or relocation of sites

• report interruptions, etc.

Begin any notes with the relevant Site ID number.

NOTES

Continued from previous page (042412)

Site ID # (e.g., 101_06)
Species Name	Point Count	Supp.	Point Count	Supp.	Point Count	Supp	Point Count	Supp
Gambel's Quail
Rock Pigeon
White-winged Dove
Mourning Dove
Black-chinned Hmngbrd.
Anna's Hummingbird
Broad-billed Humngbrd
Gila Woodpecker
Gilded Flicker
Ash-throated Flycatcher
Brown-crested Flycatcher
Western Kingbird
Verdin
Cactus Wren
Black-tailed Gnatcatcher
Curve-billed Thrasher
Northern Mockingbird
European Starling
Phainopepla
House Finch
Lesser Goldfinch
Black-throated Sparrow
Brown-headed Cowbird
Great-tailed Grackle
Northern Cardinal
Pyrrhuloxia
House Sparrow								